

Angie Richman

Communication Specialist

National Park Service

Climate Change Response Program

Agency Role

Know your agency position and response

Recognize the strengths of your agency

Partner and Collaborate

4 Key Components

- Mitigation
- Adaptation
- Communication
- Science

Can be found at <http://www.nps.gov/climatechange>

National Park Service Climate Change Response Strategy

DRAFT February 2010, Version 1.0

Communication Messages

Climate change is happening and human activities are contributing to and accelerating it.

Changing climate has consequences for parks, people, and the planet.

The NPS is responding with practices that address climate change.

The choices we make now may help to avoid catastrophic impacts in the future.

Agency Role

Know your agency position and response

Recognize the strengths of your agency

Partner and Collaborate

